WHEREAS, South Dakota retail merchants have provided an ever widening choice of products and services to meet consumer needs and desires. Retailing promotes the orderly functioning of our state's distribution system, and strengthens our state economy by creating employment and income:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the period February 14 through February 20, 1971, as and urge all South Dakotan during that period to pay special tribute, by every appropriate means, to our state's retail industry. I suggest both suppliers and customers of the industry take this opportunity to show their appreciation of the services retail management and employees provide.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 26th day of January, in the Year of Our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Seventy One.
